make contracts for telephones in residences at the reduced rate of 15 months for the 12 month's price.

The Willing Workers will hold a rehearsal Tuesday evening at 6 sharp.
Let everyone who take part in the cantata be present. If the children who are soliciting want to report they can do the same at the church Tuesday evening.

Lewis Brassaw has sold his farm in East Montpelier to Mrs. H. E. Slayton, the consideration being $4,000. Mr. and Mrs. Slayton have already taken possession. Mr. Brassaw will move back to this city and contemplates buying a place here.

William Miers, the barber, declares that it pays to advertise. He wanted a girl for general housework and inserted an advertisement in The Times. He declared this morning, "I bet I've had 50 girls apply for the place. And they're still coming."

"The Social Outcast" pleased an overcrowded house at Hale's Pavilion last Saturday evening. This lively and exciting little drama will be presented again tonight. Do not fail to see this last performance of the fair. It numbers among the best.

The Men's Sunday Evening club of the Congregational church will hold a social meeting in the vestry Friday evening. A special feature of the meeting will be a talk by Hon. J. A. DeBoer of Montpelier. The men of the congregation are cordially invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Speaking of the work of the Barre members of the "King Jollity" cast which played in Montpelier last week, the Journal says: "T. J. Mercer, 'the royal treasurer, Popo,' was a source of continuous laughter from the time he caught his fish in the first act until the final drop of the curtain. The song and dance by Popo with Miss L. E.
Hughes, 'Fairies,' was clever and his 'Sherlock Holmes' song was well done." Also "A. Troup, both in name and stage work, was A. Troup as Capt. Patterson.
His song 'Stand Back' received four hands, and is heard on the streets today."

See Fannie Wood at the opera house tonight.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Although eighty-five years old, Mrs.
Sarah McLaughlin of Lynn, Mass., does a good day's work binding shoes.

Mrs. Russell, widow of Henry Grinnell Russell of Providence, R. I., is the richest woman in New England. She has $20,000,000 and no children.

Mrs. Johanna Wood, the mother of twelve children, was elected constable at Hugo, Colo., by the votes of both parties. No man would run against her.

Miss Minnie Robinson of Detroit, Mich., a graduate of the Michigan university, has won national honors as a student of botany. She is professor of the latter at Vassar.

Princess Eleonora Massalska died of hunger in Vienna the other day. Her father, having lost his fortune, committed suicide some years ago, and she endeavored to make a living by giving lessons.

Another fashionable London woman who has recently gone into business is Mrs. Charles Forester, who has set up a dressmaking establishment, where she designs and makes smart picture gowns, which are said to have a great sale.

Miss Ruby Cooke, daughter of Lady Cooke of Easthorpe, England, is believed to own one of the finest collections of dogs in the world, including Mighty Atom, which weighs just two and a half pounds. Another of her fads is photographing.

Influenced by the example set by Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel during her recent visit at Philadelphia, the society women of that place have developed a fad for rifle shooting. Mrs. Drexel imported the idea from England, where it bears the stamp of royal approval.

CURRENT COMMENT.

In several of the states highway robbery is a capital felony. Hanging is none too bad for the felon who arms himself to kill and proceeds to hold up citizens for their money.—Galveston Daily News.

The great arguments in favor of machine voting are that it saves an immense amount of expense in preparing the ballots, of time in counting them, while it makes a false count or stuffing of the returns impossible.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The autocratic system of Russia is entirely out of harmony with the political opinions of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, but it is much easier to indicate its defects than it is to show in what way it can be safely reformed.—Boston Herald.

If there is a world's fair to celebrate the opening of the Panama canal San Francisco can have it without any opposition from Philadelphia, Chicago, Buffalo or St. Louis. One fair amply satisfies the cravings of the city in which it is held.—Newark News.

DROPS OF WATER.

The Thames flows at the rate of two miles an hour.

The quantity of water discharged into the sea by all the rivers of the world is about thirty-six cubic miles in a day.

The Kongo is one of the widest waterways in the globe if not the finest.
It is twenty-five miles across in parts, so that vessels may pass one another and yet be out of sight.

"Fannie Wood" and a big continuous show at the opera house tonight.
